

The Sardinian Cultural Association's Next Generation invites you to Enoteca Sileno for an afternoon of music, literature and food with some inspiring guests.

sunday spuntino with

Kavisha Mazzella

ARIA award winning singer/songwriter

Her music has been described as "passionate and life-affirming- peppered with Italian folk traditions and traits of Country, Celtic and Gypsy styles.

Angela Villella & Teresa Oates

Founders of mangiamangia.com.au

Capturing the unwritten recipes and food traditions of their family and culture, their website aims to inspire others, from all cultures, to share their passion.

Maria

Pallotta-Chiarolli

Author, Lecturer and Activist

Maria is a leading published writer, researcher, lecturer, consultant and activist in the issues of cultural, sexual, gender and family diversity.

Gabriella Gomersall-Hubbard

Journalist-Photographer - Il Globo

Gabriella has accumulated various media accolades and achievements including the Victorian Multicultural Award (2007). She is a passionate photographer, thespian and is vice president of the Dante Alighieri Society.

Date: Sunday 27th September 2009

Time: 2pm - 4pm

Location: Enoteca Sileno, 920 Lygon Street, Carlton North

RSVP: 15th September to next.generation@optusnet.com.au or call Laura on 0416 091 072 or Jen on 0407 611 992

Cost: $15 (includes 'un spuntino' and a wine/beer/softdrink)

